- I was a Client-side Developer of a team that were one of the finalists of the "Bengalathon 2019" National Hackathon event.
- We made a Facial Recognition System to which I provided support for the Client side(i.e an Android App) that included firebase support.

Digital Clock (12/2021 - Present) 🔗

- It is a Simple Digital Clock App that also acts as a reminder where you can set the time of your wake up, lunch and nap and it will notify you with the same.
- I used HTML,CSS and JavaScript to implement this project and tried to provide the most stylist UI possible with that. Further I am planning on to integrate the project with a database and add login so that it can serve multiple users.Also would like to incorporate React and Express in future.
